Order Acknowledgement and Shipping Notice

PSW is totally digitized— which means instant information for you. You will receive an Order Acknowledgement e-mail the morning after we receive your PO. It contains every detail about your order including delivery - the "In - House Date".

Our Shipping notice provides bill of lading information. When your orders leave our dock, you will receive an e-mail containing a description of the material, your PO and or part number, weight shipped, and the number of coils all before your material arrives.

Ask your sales representative how to get started.
